

Analysis of A Life Path #8

THE EXECUTIVE AND CONTROLLER

8s thrive on the challenges life has to offer and become energized in the role they self-appoint themselves as the fighter of injustice. Standing for justice makes them feel powerful. The 8 has a very strong executive ability. They have a way about them that orchestrates life as if it were a business. Their main focus is material freedom. 8s can be materialistic because they seek the finer things in life. They have a lust for life and would much rather have Quality vs. Quantity. They have a controlling nature and want things to be just right. 8s want to make this world a better place and will fight to see it that way.

The 8 deeply admires the strength in themselves and in others and they disdain weakness. They can easily spot the powerful one in the room and find themselves stuck to them like glue. They are attracted like a magnet to metal to powerful people. 8s have definite ideas of what justice is and will fight until they prevail. They will challenge authority or anyone who they feel is the oppressor. They will not stop until they bring about reform. This fight for justice exhilarates them while it may tire others leaving them drained. 8s enjoy the psychological arm wrestle with others and prefer power over prestige. If provoked, they can bully others. They immediately deem another's weaknesses as ineffective and can take swift aim.

8s do not take advice very well. Life offers many lessons, and it is their lesson to learn, You cannot teach it to them. They have to learn the hard way. Sometimes they have to hit their head up against the wall many times before they actually learn. It may be frustrating for others around them, but this is what the 8 needs in order to learn the deeper lessons that others may not fully understand.

8 is the money number. 8s either have an abundance of money or it continuously slips through their fingers, however, they are here to master money. Although many 8s are millionaires, you may find those who keep all their money in the bank afraid to spend it. Or those who seek someone who is a millionaire so they can spend their money. They tend to work hard and play hard. An issue they may have is a fear of lack of money, which is why they may tend to focus on it so much. This can stem from growing up in a family where their parents had financial difficulties and the 8 does not want to experience the same hardships. They will do everything they can to become financially free.

8 is also the number for the politician because they have a need for power, they always want to be the boss. They want to control and make a difference. They love boardrooms and being in the center of the action. They are intelligent, aggressive, and the art of negotiation enlivens them. They would rather not compromise. Before accepting another person's idea they must be fully convinced they will strengthen the plan not weaken it. Others have to really believe and be confident in their proposals before approaching the 8. If the 8 senses insecurity or timidity they will interrupt, override and ignore. They find it easy to say no and difficult to say yes because they feel they are yielding their power to another.

In relationships with family and friends their finer qualities emerge. Tenderness reigns with children, the elderly, and animals. They are fiercely protective of those they care for. They take pride in their home and community and will find ways to serve in some way. If they see an injustice they will stand up against it. They enjoy using their energy in helping those that cannot help themselves. They will always encourage others to grow in strength by confronting their own problems and do not believe in giving a free ride to those who can help themselves. They are very romantic and love the finer things. In romantic relationships, you will have to be head-strong and ready for a good challenge. The 8s like to be in control. They will shower their partner with love and spoil them. They are very passionate. They need to travel and experience new places. The 8 may work so hard that they forget the ones who they are working for. They have to stop and make those around them feel special. They have to make extra effort to give those they love special attention. They focus more on the quality of their time than the amount of time. This can confuse those they love, however, the time they do spend will be worth it and magical. Sometimes they can forget to stop and actually enjoy their life and the ones they love. It is easy to feel neglected by them. Just communicate with the 8. They want everyone to be happy.

They have to be cautious not to become a victim. They do not get away with much. If a group of people was j-walking, the 8 would get a ticket. They have to take life with humor. 8s cannot be so serious about life. Although they can become the victim of circumstances they do not have much tolerance for others who feel sorry for themselves. They need to be cautioned about their health; they are prone to injuries. They do not like to show weakness so they internalize their stress, which may show up in the physical, bodily form. They need to pay attention. They are often very competitive in sports which can also lead to injuries. Hardship comes when they try to control others or circumstances around them. They will find peace when they learn that the only thing they can control in life is themselves. Their own thoughts and feelings.

Occupations the 8 may want to consider are an entrepreneur, banker, stock market advisor, accountant, and engineer. They excel in anything dealing with money or a position of power. 8s also make good corporate lawyers or judges.

Affirmations for the 8:

“I appreciate the greatness and strengths in others”

“I can find my strength also in my weakness”

“Life unfolds naturally and I easily control my own thoughts and feelings”

“I am a spiritual powerhouse and I use it for the good of all”

“I am always healing and growing in love”

“I do not have to control all things, I have faith that All Things are in perfect control by God”

COMPATIBLE NUMBERS: 2, 4, 6    CHALLENGE NUMBERS: 1, 3, 7, 8, 9